Bolt-On Option

With the bolt-on option, you can integrate the online English courses from Red Rock ELC into your own school (brick-n-mortar or online), learning centre, or business. The bolt-on option enables your learning program to expand, complement, and/or supplement its course offerings to the students by simply adding ("bolting-on") one or more of our online English courses to your program's current list of courses all within a customised "skinning" of our e-learning context.

Curriculum Guide

The Red Rock ELC offers three categories of courses:

1. General English Courses
(Beginner to Upper Intermediate)
2. Examination Preparation Courses
(FCE, CAE, CPE, & IELTS)
3. Business English Courses
(to include BULATS preparation)

General English Courses

The General English Curriculum is based on the New English File series, published by Oxford University Press, and this curriculum offers five levels of language instruction, ranging from "Beginner" to "Upper Intermediate". Get the details about our General English Curriculum at <http://www.redrocklearning.com>.

Examination Preparation Courses

The Examination Preparation Courses begin from where the General English Courses end, and that is at either the B2 (Level 4) or C1 (Level 5) level. Our many examination preparation courses help prepare students for the KET, PET, FCE, CAE, CPE, and IELTS exams. Get the details about our Examination Preparation Curriculum at <http://www.redrocklearning.com>.

Business Language Testing Service (BULATS) Preparation Courses

The two Business English courses help to prepare the student for the world of international business and its accompanying requirement for English language proficiency. Get the details about our Business Language Curriculum at <http://www.redrocklearning.com>.

Students who successfully complete the online English courses from Red Rock will be prepared to take various exams from the following internationally recognised institutions:
